Shabbat Shemot*

*It has been told to you, what is good, and what Adonai requires of you
Only to do justice, to love mercy, and to walk humbly with your God. (Micah 6:8)*

America the Beautiful

O beautiful for spacious skies, for amber waves of grain,
For purple mountain majesties above the fruited plain
America! America! God shed God's grace on thee
And crown thy good with brotherhood from sea to shining sea

O beautiful, her spirit dimmed, as dawn was in our sight
With hatred near, we'll take our fear and bend it toward the light
America, America, let's realize our ideals
For equity, and people free, so all may rise and heal

O beautiful for working folk who forged the wealth we see
In farm and mill, in home and school, unsung in history
America! America! May race nor sex nor creed
No more divide, but side by side, all rise, united, freed

You hallow us with Your Mitzvot and command us to kindle the light of Shabbat.

Eternity Utters a Day

Text: Abraham Joshua Heschel; Music by Dan Nichols

A thought has blown the marketplace away.
There is a song on the wind, and joy in the trees.
Shabbat has arrived in the world.
Scattering a song, in the silence of the night.
And eternity utters a day.

On Shabbat especially, we hearken to Your call to serve You as a holy people. We praise You, O God, for the holiness of Shabbat.*

Blowin' In The Wind

Music and Lyrics by Bob Dylan

How many roads must a man walk down before you call him a man?
How many seas must a white dove sail before she sleeps in the sand?
How many times must the cannon balls fly before they're forever banned?
The answer, my friend, is blowin' in the wind
The answer is blowin' in the wind

How many years can a mountain exist before it is washed to the sea?
How many years can some people exist before they're allowed to be free?
How many times can a man turn his head and pretend that he just doesn't see?
The answer, my friend, is blowin' in the wind
The answer is blowin' in the wind

How many times must a man look up before he can see the sky?
How many ears must one man have before he can hear people cry?
How many deaths will it take 'til he knows that too many people have died?
The answer, my friend, is blowin' in the wind
The answer is blowin' in the wind
